FROM THE PRESIDENT

Dear partners and friends,

It's hard for me to express the way I feel right now. I'm filled with excitement, wonder, and eager anticipation—like a child on Christmas Eve, but much more complicated. I have a sense that we're living in a historic moment. I feel like we're being swept along by a torrent of Holy Spirit momentum, and I'm just trying to keep my head above water!

It's a terrifying and exhilarating experience all at the same time! I am overwhelmed by what God is doing and will do (you will see what I mean as you read this magazine). At the same time, it has been a very intense and, in many ways, difficult season. Many of us have been experiencing a heightened sense of spiritual warfare in multiple dimensions of life.

In this IMPACT magazine, you'll catch the tiniest glimpse of the amazing year that CfaN has had. From putting on two Operation Decapolis multi-crusade events, to our first Flagship Crusade since the pandemic started, to CfaN Bootcamp graduates holding evangelistic campaigns all over the world, to the joyful launch of Nations Church in Orlando...it has been nonstop.

All this exciting activity, as widespread and diverse as it may be, is part of one united vision of a Decade of Double Harvest. Years ago, the Lord showed me that this mandate could only be accomplished through "multiplication and collaboration." That means it requires people—lots of people laying down their lives to see the harvest reaped.

Whether you are the one being sent to preach or the one sending preachers with your finances or the one working tirelessly in the background to make it all happen—we are all part of the same team, brought together by God for a purpose far greater than we can imagine.

Yours in the harvest,

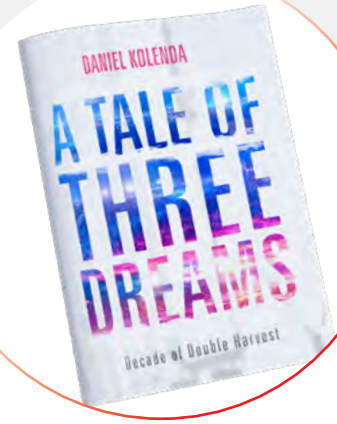
THREE Dreams

the Decade of Double Harvest Vision

DANIEL KOLENDA



Already, hundreds of thousands have come to Christ through the evangelists we've trained.

We are living in unprecedented times. The world is filled with upheaval and chaos as most of us have never seen before. But at the same time, God is moving in historic ways, and we are on the cutting edge of what God is doing. I would like to share with you a divine story line that is unfolding right now.

The first of the three dreams came to Evangelist Reinhard Bonnke as a young man. In this dream he saw the African continent being washed in the blood of Jesus, and he heard the Holy Spirit cry, "Africa shall be saved." That dream launched the ministry of Christ for all Nations and resulted in over 81 million documented decisions for Christ to date.

The second dream happened in 2012. One night while Reinhard and I were ministering together, he had a vivid dream. He felt he had been projected into the future and overheard two personalities talking. One voice asked, "Whatever happened to Reinhard Bonnke?" The other replied, "Reinhard Bonnke was just the forerunner of a whole generation of Holy Spirit evangelists." This stirred Reinhard to impart something to the next generation for the sake of the coming harvest, something that characterized his preaching and teaching in his last years—which brings us to my dream.

In 2017 the Lord began to speak to me about the coming decade as a decade of double harvest. I felt that over the next 10 years, we would see the number of souls saved doubled to over 150 million! God would do in 10 years what had taken the previous 30 years combined. It will be a supernatural acceleration of the harvest!

At first, this felt unrealistic to me. But then the Lord said that this tremendous increase would come not through addition but through multiplication! We would not see exponential growth with bigger campaigns or more campaigns but by multiplying ourselves. The key to my dream (a Decade of Double Harvest) is the dream that God gave Reinhard Bonnke (an "army of Holy Spirit evangelists").

This is no longer a dream—it is now reality! To date we have run three Evangelism Bootcamps where the CfaN team and I pour into a select group of evangelists from all over the world. Already, hundreds of thousands have come to Christ through the evangelists we've trained. But this is just the beginning.

We plan to start schools in several countries, and within the next couple years we will have thousands of students in evangelism schools on every continent!

Here is what I felt God showed me regarding the power of multiplication. What it means is that the Decade of Double Harvest will only be the beginning of a much greater harvest to follow.

In 2020, four of the evangelists we trained went to Africa prior to one of our mass Gospel campaigns. They conducted 611 outreaches in seven weeks and led over 200,000 people to Christ—50,000 souls EACH! That was just a test of the strategy that we are now rolling out with hundreds and soon thousands of students.

But imagine that I had just 2,000 equipped evangelists, backed by CfaN's team. Imagine that they had a whole year to win 50,000 people to Christ instead of just seven weeks. 2,000 evangelists X 50,000 souls = 100 million salvations PER YEAR!

"I believe the harvest that lies before us is not only the opportunity of a lifetime, but the opportunity of the ages."

Multiply that by ten years, we are talking about a billion-soul harvest! That is the power of multiplication.

My friend, will you make a decision within yourself to stand with us over the next ten years in the Decade of Double Harvest? I don't know what that will look like for you. We surely need your prayers and financial support as never before. But most importantly—we need you. Will you take this incredible journey with us?

HONORING

A LIFETIME OF SERVICE

EVANGELINE VANDENBERG

On June 3, 2021, the Assemblies of God presented Anni Bonnke with their highest award, the Smith Wigglesworth Evangelist Legacy Award, for a lifetime of faithfulness, integrity and passion in fulfilling God's calling as an evangelist. CfaN thanks the Assemblies of God for honoring Reinhard and Anni with this prestigious award. And we join them in honoring and thanking Anni and the Bonnke family for their lifetime of dedication to serving God's call on their lives for the continent of Africa and the rest of the world.

The wonders you are PART OF!

PETER VANDENBERG

After forty-one years with CfaN I have seen a lot–all the early days of exciting growth in the crusades, the completion of the big tent and then the incredible massive crusades in West Africa that continue to this day.

So many ministries end with a slow winding down of vision and activity with a handover to a less-than-qualified family member, but with CfaN this is absolutely not the case. Thanks to Reinhard Bonnke's obedience in opening the way for a successor and Daniel Kolenda's willingness to submit his call to it, the future arrived with a big splash.

Now, with over a decade of Daniel's vision and leadership, we are in full swing with even more crusades than ever before and the amazing rush of hundreds of evangelists to be trained and to join the harvest. Crusades and outreaches are taking place around the world constantly now with people being saved daily. And this multiplication of effort, vision and zeal will result in the biggest move of evangelism in the history of the church. We are already seeing the early signs of this.

Thank you for standing with Christ for all Nations to share the Gospel!

What a joy it is to be able to witness all of this and to be a part of it. And every mission partner, every donor, IS a part of it! It's thanks to you that all of this tremendous growth is possible, and with every precious soul brought into the Kingdom of God, you share in the heavenly reward the Father promised. We want you to know that every donation, big or small, is not only a blessing to us, but a tool in the Lord's hands to accomplish miracles of salvation, healing and deliverance.

Will you prayerfully consider becoming a regular giver to this ministry? Partners who commit to monthly giving enable us to plan better, to set new and exciting goals and to carry out the strategies God has given us to reach at least 150 million for Jesus before the end of this decade. Thank you for standing with Christ for all Nations to share the Gospel!

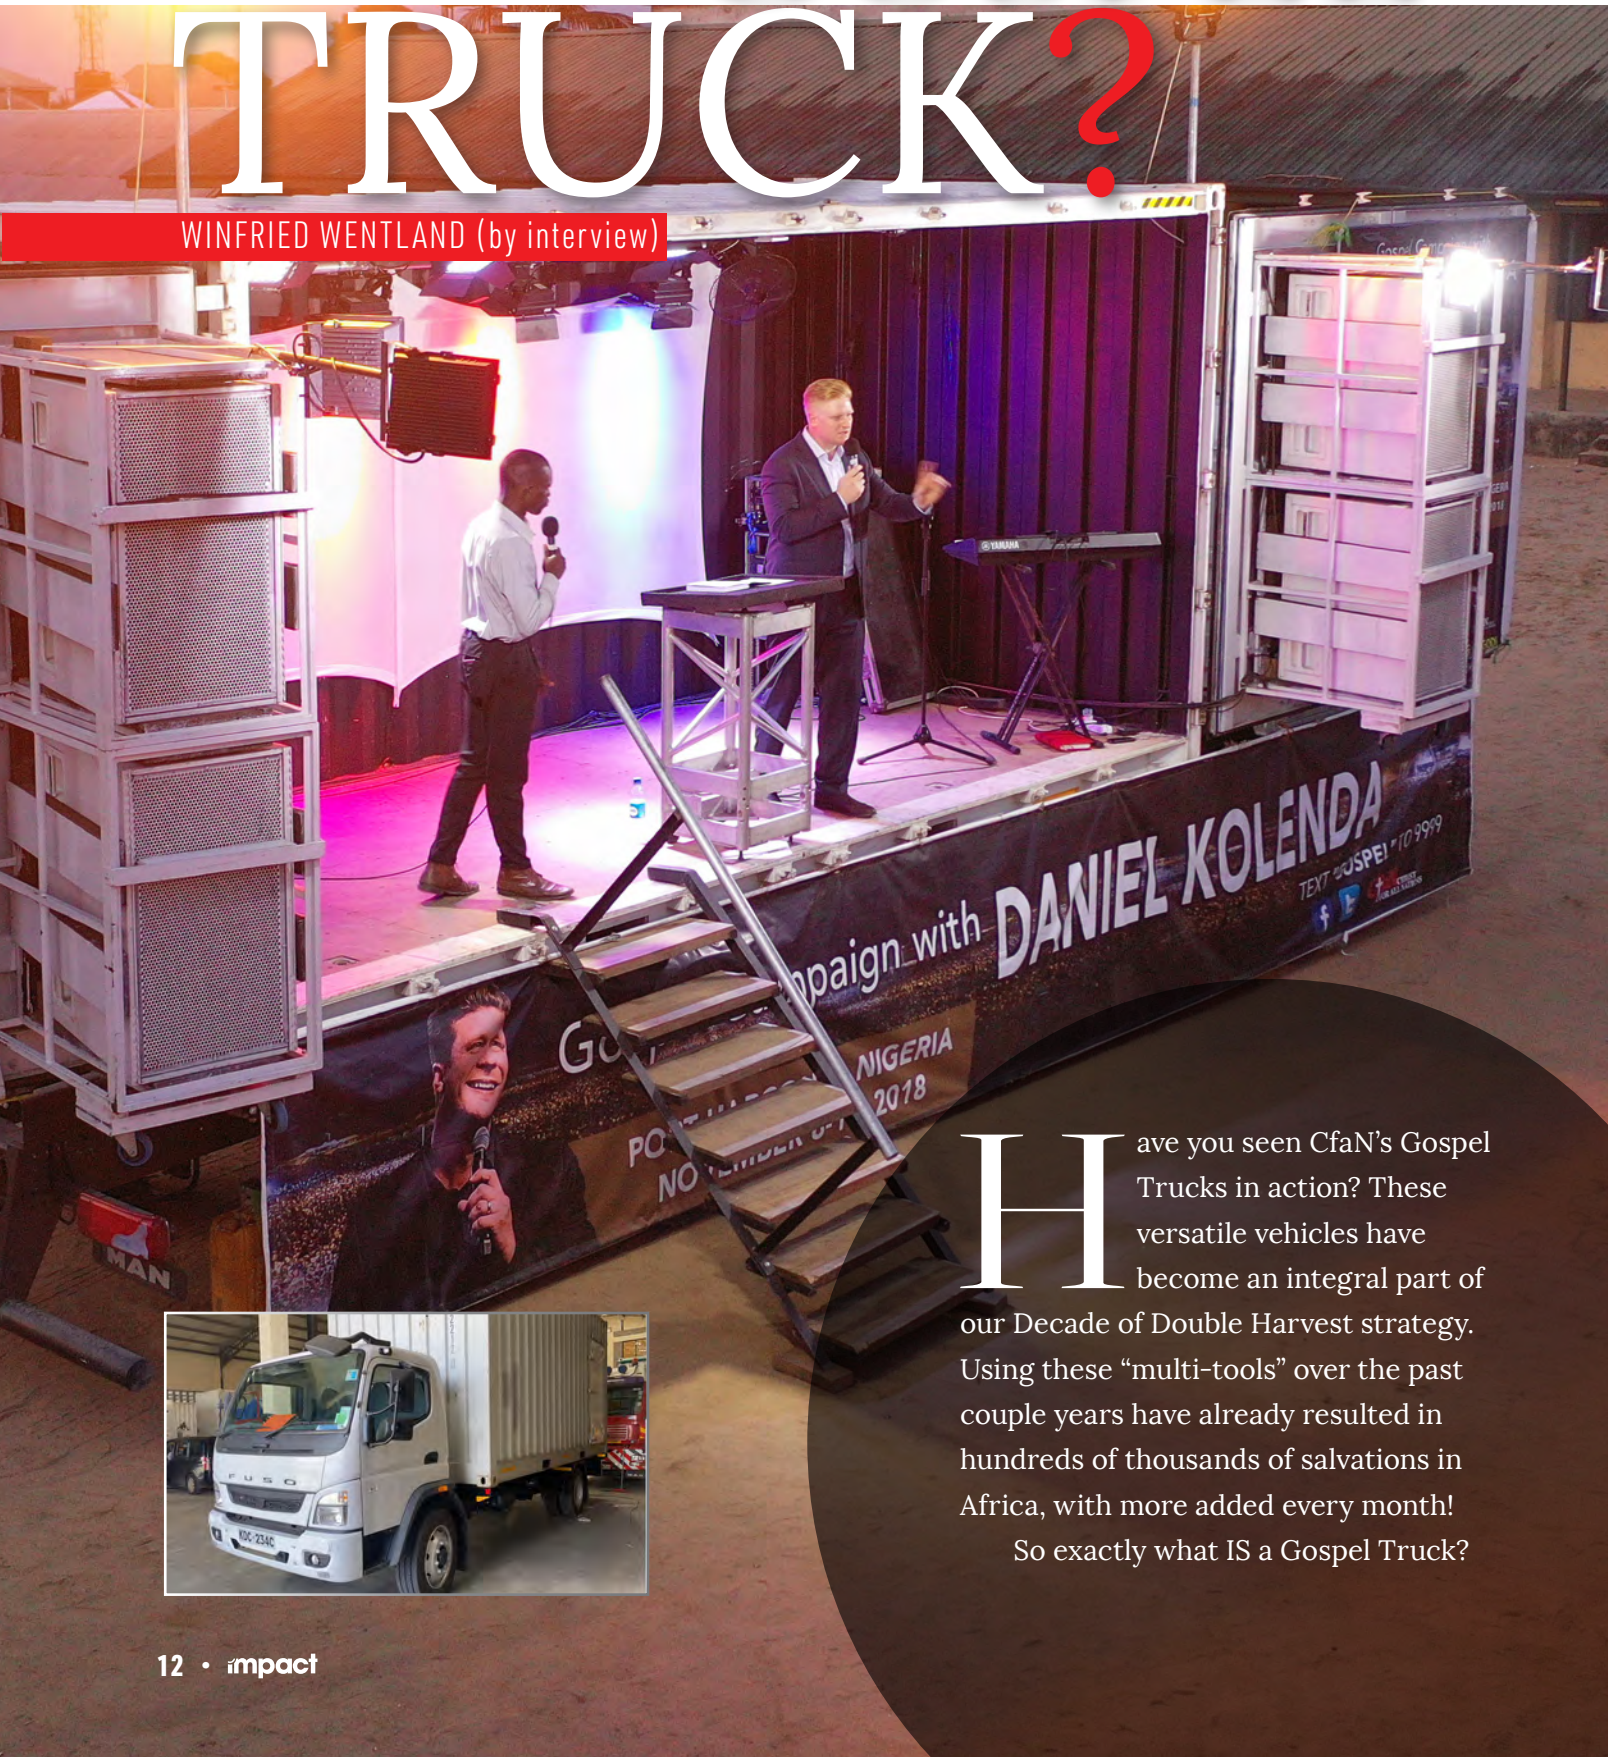
What is a...GOSPEL TRUCK?

WINFRIED WENTLAND (by interview)



Have you seen CfaN's Gospel Trucks in action? These versatile vehicles have become an integral part of our Decade of Double Harvest strategy. Using these "multi-tools" over the past couple years have already resulted in hundreds of thousands of salvations in Africa, with more added every month!

So exactly what IS a Gospel Truck?

Gospel Trucks are full-customized mobile rigs that serve as both transport and stage for evangelists. They're equipped with everything needed to turn almost anywhere into an instant crusade venue—sound systems and lights, a generator and storage space for follow-up materials. There's no supplier for these trucks, no possible way to order them ready-made. Our technical logistics director, Winfried Wentland, starts by sourcing a suitable truck that can handle the punishing African road conditions and weather. Then our team spends many hours carefully customizing the vehicle. They must find innovative and safe ways to install everything from the generator to the sound and lighting equipment, keeping things as simple and hardy as possible. It's no easy task!

These versatile, mobile rigs are being put to work almost year-round.

With one of these vehicles, small teams of two or three evangelists can conduct outreaches anywhere the truck can go. And because they're so mobile, teams often conduct as many as 9 outreaches in a single day! From village markets to suburban street intersections, Gospel Trucks provide a platform for preaching the Gospel where the people are, rather than waiting for them to come to a venue. And it's proving to be incredibly effective.

Right now, CfaN already has three trucks in West Africa (two in Nigeria and one in Ghana), as well as two on the ground in East Africa. They serve multiple roles. Besides moving from place to place, they're also being used for weeklong mini-crusades and school ministry, and they provide advertising space for upcoming major crusades. And they're a vital part of training our Evangelism Bootcamp students, giving them the opportunity to organize and conduct their own outreaches. It's valuable real-world experience at an eye-popping pace. Using the Gospel Trucks, students doing their Initiation Trip (the practical training final phase of Bootcamp) each conducts more outreaches in a week than most evangelists will experience in many months or even years.

Combining the Bootcamp Initiation teams of evangelists with the Gospel Trucks has given Flagship Crusades a whole new lead-up phase. Heading out in twos and threes, Bootcamp students hold an astonishing number of small campaigns in the weeks before the main event. While this helps spread the word and build anticipation for the big event, it also results in hundreds of thousands of salvations before the Flagship Campaign has even started!

Without doubt, this effective strategy is set to grow hugely, with plans for many more Gospel Trucks in the pipeline.

ANSWER THE CALL IN ANY SEASON

ANNE MARIE GBOBIA
CfaN Bootcamp Graduate

At 60, when many think of slowing down, Anne Marie Niandou Gbobia graduated from the CfaN Evangelism Bootcamp. Raised in Cote d'Ivoire, Anne Marie has a burden for French-speaking African nations.

"I applied to Bootcamp after the Lord gave me 3 dreams about a vast ripe wheat field that I could not harvest. I was hand picking the wheat and could only pick 3 ears. I woke up sorry for such a meager result. I cried out to the Lord for strategies and help in that area, feeling I would miss my destiny if I failed to harvest that huge field. My prayer was 'Lord, this can only be done by a harvester; I need a harvester.' The Lord connected me to that harvester—CfaN. CfaN's mass crusade evangelism is an incredible harvesting machine that can collect thousands of souls in just one crusade. That's what I wanted!

Bootcamp catapulted me to another level in ministry. It challenged and boosted my faith and changed my life. I got pruned, and it drove me closer to Jesus. I learned so much about myself, others, and mass evangelism. It gave me boldness and self-confidence, not in my own ability, but to walk in the call of God. And it gave me a family of fellow evangelists, people I share the same vision with.

What would I say to someone in my season of life, who is hearing the call? I'd say, 'Do not hesitate!' There is no age to answer the call of God. God works in seasons, and if going to Bootcamp is what God has put in your heart, He will give you all it takes to succeed: health, strength, finance and any other concern. Also, there is no conflict of generations at Bootcamp. Bootcamp is like a puzzle where there is a place for every piece to fit in.

Right now, I am working as a missionary evangelist. I have been to Tanzania and Ghana for Kids/Youth Crusades and to Ghana for 2 Leadership Conferences. I am in Cote d'Ivoire to organize Kids/Youth Crusades but also to pave the way for future Bootcamp Initiation Trips in West African countries. What I am doing now is like getting on track to me—I am living my best life doing what my soul longed for."

My prayer was ‘Lord, this can only be done by a harvester; I need a harvester.’ The Lord connected me to that harvester–CfaN.

LEVI LUTZ
CfaN Evangelism Bootcamp Director

Where do the Bootcamp students come from?

In 2021, we had two CfaN Evangelism Bootcamps with 240 students in total, over 4 times as many as 2020! They are 60% international (40% from the USA), so we have people from all over the world. It's a mixed group of men and women, and all ages from their early twenties right up to seventies. Some have many years of ministry experience, and some are brand-new to the mission field.

What's a day like at Bootcamp?

It's intense! After getting up, Bootcamp students spend about an hour and a half in prayer, led by Eric Gilmour. Then they typically have two sessions from some of the absolute best soul winners and evangelists pouring into them. It's at a really high level, both the spiritual and the practical, on how to have a successful evangelistic campaign ministry. And it's seven days a week. Last year's course was 6 months. This year, we've squeezed the same material into 3 months. The pace is relentless.

What is the aim of the training?

We want to equip these people to the level of being a lead evangelist. We want them to get to the point where, if you dropped them off anywhere in the world, they would begin to win souls, then be equipped all the way up to mobilizing churches and mass campaign evangelism.

What does "practical" training mean?

It's literally everything evangelists need to know, from how to pack a suitcase so your clothes don't wrinkle, how to navigate airports, all the way to spending time behind the scenes working closely with CfaN staff in every department. We want them to understand how to organize events, how to run a ministry with integrity, efficiency and everything they need to be effective evangelists.

How do they practice what they're learning?

There are outreaches happening all the time. Weekend outreaches on Friday and Saturday nights are intense. They're going into bars and clubs downtown here in Orlando, preaching the Gospel to the last, the least and the lost. But in addition to the planned outreaches, these guys are unstoppable! They're going out in the week in their own time. Recently, with just an hour off time, some students decided to go out and have an "hour of power"–and 38 souls were saved! Every weekend, we're seeing at least a hundred people saved.

JACQUES MAU
CfaN Bootcamp Graduate

After 3 months of intensive training in evangelism at our CfaN headquarters in Orlando, Florida, over 90 Evangelism Bootcamp students packed their bags in May and headed to Tanzania in East Africa. This was the first of two 2021 Bootcamp Initiation trips, a real-world test of all their training.

During Bootcamp, students learned how to preach a Gospel sermon and pray for the sick, how to pack your suitcase, how to deal with cultural differences, how to ground themselves in prayer and worship—and so much more. When it was time to leave for Tanzania, the atmosphere was electric with excitement and anticipation. There, they conducted over 1,200 outreaches.

Bootcamp students shared some wonderful stories...

"Not today, devil!"

The day started a little rocky. Wet weather made the roads a slippery mess. Our minivan struggled to gain traction as it lurched down the road to the location for the Kids' Outreach. The driver struggled to understand our team captain. The GPS struggled to find our position. The enemy was making an all-out assault to prevent children from hearing the Gospel. We prayed and let the devil know: "Not today!"

The first outreach went well. We saw many children reach their hands in the air for salvation and to receive the Holy Spirit. After the prayer of salvation, the song "One Way Jesus" rang through the hills of Tanzania! Children lined up to receive their copy of "What's Next?" (follow-up literature for children).

Phillip Anderson

The Fatherhood of God touched her heart and healed her

I ministered to a woman who was tormented for over eight years by unclean spirits. She first repented of her sins and received the gift of salvation. Afterward, the Lord revealed that the open door to the demons was the spirit of rejection. We broke the curses and delivered her from the spirit of rejection. The Fatherhood of God touched her heart and healed her from the wounds of rejection and abandonment. With a beautiful smile coming upon her face, she was delivered and set free. She then wanted her mom to be set free. We got into the car and drove to her house. There, her mom, along with four others, called upon the Lord. Her daughter was healed from mental illness, she was healed of ulcers, and we prayed for all of them to be baptized in the Holy Spirit. A man who had come up to join them was also saved and filled with the Holy Spirit. He was visibly touched by the power of God.

Abraham Lankford

The whole village prayed

One day when I preached on healing in a village, a man came forward to testify that he was healed! However, something must have been missed in translation as he spoke a tribal language, not Swahili. I had to get another translator to translate from Swahili. Then he said he was not yet healed and needed prayer. He was already on stage, so I had the entire village stretch out their hands towards him as I prayed and broke that infirmity from his body in Jesus' name. His knees were healed instantly, and he was bending down doing squats on stage! It was wild!

DANIEL KOLENDA

Before the Crusade...

The preparations for an event of this magnitude begin many months ahead of time. For the technical team, the campaign organizers, and the administrative team, it was an enormous challenge. And with the pandemic adding layers of complication to every aspect, every team member was called upon to be more resourceful and dedicated than ever. But as the time approached, the level of involvement and commitment from local churches made it clear that the timing was right for an earth-shaking move of God in Ibadan.

While the Crusade teams labored behind the scenes in the final month before the event, the spiritual work—bringing people to Jesus—had already begun. During that month, the most recent group of CfaN Evangelism Bootcamp students hit the ground running in Ibadan for their Bootcamp Initiation. That's when they put into practice all they've been learning during Bootcamp.

Through over 1,800 outreaches that they conducted before the main event (Gospel Truck outreaches, Kids' Crusade, and village outreaches), nearly a quarter of a million people were saved. Isn't that glorious? And the miracles of healing and deliverance that happened every single day of Initiation were like a holy wildfire in the streets, spreading the news by word of mouth everywhere the Bootcamp evangelists went. Shortly after the Ibadan Crusade, with their Initiation behind them, these students graduated and were launched into evangelistic ministry. These are the days of harvest!

Night One

After almost two years since we were last in Nigeria, what a joy it was to be back! The hunger and faith of the Nigerians inspire me.

When we drove on the field on the first night, we were taken aback. The field was absolutely massive, and so was the crowd. In fact, the field was nearly the same dimensions as our record-breaking millennium campaign in Lagos. In my spirit, I could already see it filled to capacity and Jesus being glorified over this city as never before.

As I took the platform to preach, rain began to bucket down. This was a real tropical storm, dramatic and intense. One would expect the crowd, standing under the open sky, to disperse in all directions in search of shelter. Instead, no one left or even stirred. In fact, it seemed to me that the rain only strengthened their confidence that the Lord would meet them that night.

As I prayed for the sick, we saw amazing miracles:

- An older woman who was totally blind could now see.
- A young man who was hunched over from birth stood up straight for the first time! He had no more pain, and his posture was perfect.
- A woman who was partially deaf in the right ear was healed.
- A woman who suffered from severe arthritis for 10 years was totally healed and pain free. We danced together on the platform!

In all, more than 145,000 people (our count) attended the meeting on the first night. That is really outstanding, especially considering it was the opening service, and it was in the midst of a torrential downpour.

Night Two

The word about what Jesus was doing had gone out across Ibadan, Nigeria. The whole town was buzzing. The crowd grew substantially on the second night, and there was a palpable sense of expectation and faith. As I preached the Gospel, you could hear a pin drop. The people were drinking in the Word of God. When I gave them an opportunity to respond, they broke the doors down, rushing into the Kingdom of God. What a joy to be a proclaimer of Good News in the season of harvest!

There were so many testimonies from people who had received a miracle of healing.

- One remarkable testimony was from a woman who had breast cancer. She testified that the large tumor disappeared during prayer, together with all pain.
- Many people who had previously been deaf testified that their hearing was restored.

- A man immobilized on one side from stroke was healed and could suddenly move his hands and feet and walk without crutches.

Night Three

On the third night, the campaign ground was heaving with energy. Eddie James, the Nations Church Worship Director, and the Nations Worship Team led the massive crowd in a powerful time of Worship. I preached on the power in the blood of Jesus. Then, receiving a list of well-known local curses, I called them out by name (in the local language), breaking their power in the name of Jesus. We burned witchcraft items (like idols, amulets, fetishes, sorcery stones, and other "juju") in large metal drums (see Acts 19:19). After this, I prayed over the crowd to receive the outpouring of the Holy Spirit. It was a mass Spirit baptism as many thousands were filled to overflowing.

Finally, I prayed for the sick, and amazing miracles happened. These are just a few of the wonderful testimonies that were shared:

- The first testimony was from the wife of my interpreter, who was healed from painful stomach ulcers!
- A man who was totally deaf in the left ear was healed and could now hear perfectly.
- A woman's painful fibroid (which she had suffered with for 10 years) suddenly vanished.

OVER 1.2 MILLION ATTENDED!

- A woman suffering from breast cancer for 5 years was healed.
- An elderly lady who was unable to walk without pain and the aid of a walking stick ran and danced on the platform without pain.

Night Four

More than 1.2 million people attended the four days of meetings and, although the decisions cards are still being processed, I'm sure that registered decisions for Christ will tally in the hundreds of thousands. Many influential leaders in the Church and government of Nigeria attended the final meeting, including the Governor of Oyo State and his wife. The crowd was absolutely massive—something unheard of since the pandemic began.

One final time, I preached the Gospel with all my heart, and multitudes found their way into the arms of Jesus. We prayed for the sick, and God moved mightily.

One notable miracle happened to a military man who had been in a motorcycle accident thirty years ago. As a result, his skull had caved in (the scars of which are still clearly visible), and a metal rod had been put in his leg, making it difficult to walk. A few days before, he had fallen in a ditch and was badly injured. But Jesus supernaturally completely healed him at the campaign. He said he couldn't feel the rod in his leg anymore. He was pain free and had perfect use of his legs. He even started jumping up and down on the platform. This tough man wept for joy as he thanked God for his healing.

We heard many more amazing testimonies that night, and at the close of the meeting, long lines had cued up waiting to testify. When I asked how many had received healing during the campaign, literally thousands of hands went up. I told the people to put their hands down. I said, "Let me clarify. If you had a problem in your body before we prayed and now after prayer, your problem is gone, and you know for sure that you have been healed, let me see your hand." The result was the same. Thousands raised their hands.

FIRE CONFERENCE —the largest ever!

CfaN history was made in Ibadan on Day Three. This was the grand finale of our Fire Conference there. Fire Conferences are events for registered delegates only–primarily pastors, bishops, and church leadership. That morning over 150,000 delegates attended, making it the largest Fire Conference in history! Peter Vandenberg (CfaN Vice President), John Darku (West Africa Campaign Director), Levi Lutz (CfaN Bootcamp Director), and Daniel Kolenda were the preachers, but the ministry team consisted of more than 100 CfaN Bootcamp students, graduates and coaches. In the final session, they all went through the massive crowd, each one laying hands on hundreds or even thousands of delegates. It was epic and life changing–an impartation of Holy Spirit power for service to Jesus.

A Historic Milestone for CfaN

TANYA GARDINER

For the first time in the history of the ministry we have successfully initiated five simultaneous mass Gospel Crusades in five different cities. As you can probably imagine, the logistical undertaking to execute this was enormous! This is how it worked...

Smaller towns, bigger impact

The five cities we went to were Tunduma, Iringa, Morogoro, Dodoma and Mbeya. These cities fit perfectly in the Operation Decapolis strategy - going to smaller towns where our supermassive Gospel Crusade machines aren't able to go. In the past, we only had one tool in our evangelistic toolbox–a massive campaign sledgehammer. It was very big and could only be used in certain contexts. Now, in addition to the supermassive Flagship Crusades which we are still doing, we have a new strategy that allows us to reach smaller, more remote, and unreached places with the Gospel while continuing to have a massive impact!

The multiplication effect

The Operation Decapolis Crusades in each city ran from Wednesday to Sunday, five nights each. If you are wondering how we could do this, it is because of the multiplication initiative we have been busy with for several years now. In each city, two evangelists preached two nights each. Most of these preachers are graduates of our Evangelism Bootcamp! Evangelist Daniel Kolenda preached one night in each city, traveling each day to the next ongoing campaign.

Here is just a tiny taste of the magnificent move of God in Tanzania!

TUNDUMA

After the preaching of the Gospel, I taught briefly on healing the sick, and as I began praying for the sick, miracles started breaking out everywhere. Like in CfaN footage that I've only seen on videos, crutches were being lifted into the air all over the place and the lame began to walk. The whole crowd was going crazy and started shouting and celebrating. Miracles upon miracles began breaking out everywhere my eye could see!

IRINGA

As a young African female evangelist trained by Evangelist Daniel Kolenda at the CfaN Evangelism Bootcamp, I had the precious privilege of preaching the Gospel of Jesus Christ on African soil on a mass scale. In Iringa, I preached on the power in the blood of Jesus, and for the first time in my life, I saw almost every hand go up in response to the call for salvation. I am still blown away by the breakthroughs I witnessed.

A little boy named Godwin couldn't walk for 2 months. After I prayed for the sick on Day 3, he began to walk. I asked if he could dance and he said he didn't know how to. How precious! I told him I would dance with him, and together we danced and sang praises to Jesus.

MOROGORO

Up on stage, pastors all around me wept as they witnessed this supernatural outpouring of miracles happening before their eyes. Once you've seen that, it changes you forever! Andrew was one of the first to testify on stage. His friends brought him to the crusade on a motorcycle and gently placed him on the ground, and there he lay, flat on his back, waiting for a miracle from the Lord. He hadn't been able to walk for six months, and was numb in his back and legs. But when I prayed for the sick, Andrew said he felt a surge of power enter his body. Not only was he completely healed in an instant, he also received Jesus and went home a completely changed man. The final night, I saw straightaway that the crowd was much bigger than previous nights. Before I walked up on the platform, the local Crusade organizer told me the pastors said it was the largest crowd gathering for a Gospel Crusade in the history of Morogoro!

DODOMA

As I prayed for the sick, demons started manifesting all over the field in extraordinary numbers. Our deliverance team had their hands full! And we heard many testimonies:

- One man had a brace on his back, used a cane to walk and had to use painkillers. He stopped using the cane and brace and was completely healed. He stomped all over the stage, showing how his back and legs had received strength.
- One woman had severe pain in her spine and was on crutches. After prayer, she was running on stage.

MBEYA

As the sun was setting behind the crowd, I saw thousands receiving the invitation of salvation. Seeing all the beautiful smiles and tears that were shed as they received Jesus is an image that will forever be imprinted upon my heart. After the prayer for the sick, a young man who was deaf for seven years in both ears ran up the stairs onto stage to testify that the Lord had completely restored his hearing. "What has Jesus done for you, son?" I asked. He shouted with joy: "I could not hear for seven years, but now I can hear completely!" The crowd and I roared together with a resounding, "Hallelujah!" "Who is the healer?" I asked him. With arms raised high in the air in victory and with a beaming smile, he cried out, "Jesus is the healer, and He has healed me!"

OPERATION DECAPOLIS - OCTOBER 2021

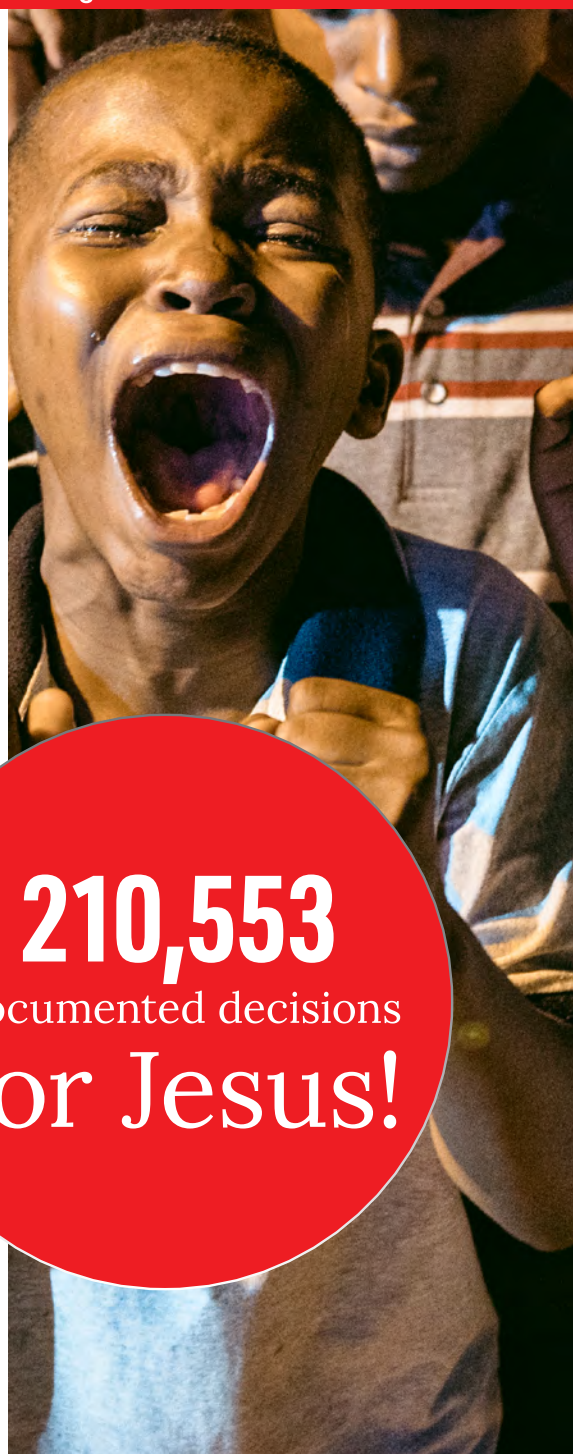
30 GOSPEL Crusade events in 5 days!

Kimara– Gongo La Mboto– Jangwani–Kigamboni–Mbagala–Kawe

DAR ES SALAAM, TANZANIA

DANIEL KOLENDA

Once again, a new high-water mark has been reached for Christ for all Nations. In our October Operation Decapolis, we held six CfaN Gospel Crusade in six areas of Dar es Salaam, lasting five nights each. That's thirty nights of campaign meetings in less than a week! Here are just a few of the many testimonies we received, shared by the guest evangelists who preached and ministered in each area.



210,553
documented decisions for Jesus!

Kimara

Evangelist Daniel Kolenda preached one night of every campaign, starting in Kimara. For the other four nights in each area, two guest evangelists (most of them Bootcamp graduates) preached and prayed for the sick. In Kimara, Evangelists Denis Artyushevskiy and Evelina Smane brought the Good News.

The first testimony is one we will never forget for the rest of our lives. We saw a mother walking with one of the counselors, crying and screaming, "My God, my God." Brady, the Crusade director, quickly ran down to find out what was happening. As he approached her, the mother wept, saying that since her son had been five, he was unable to move or walk. As we prayed, he began moving to the sound of the worship music. On stage, Denis asked the boy to try to get out of his wheelchair. The crowd went silent as the boy started moving back and forth, sliding down to place his feet on the ground. Using his hands to brace himself, he stood up, and the crowd began to roar. His mother moved the wheelchair away, and Denis asked the boy to walk towards him. He began taking small steps, without any assistance. The band and crowd began worshipping and chanting the name of Jesus as he walked across the stage unaided.

Gongo La Mboto

Evangelists Lukas Repert and Daniel Garcia (both Bootcamp graduates) described the campaign in Gongo La Mboto as a "festival of miracles."

The most holy moment of the night was the call for salvation. As the invitation was given to receive salvation through Jesus Christ, people repented by the thousands. Former Muslims across the field filled out decision cards to get connected with local churches. It was their day of salvation! Then we prayed for the sick. We didn't even have a chance to call people forward. They were already running to the stage to testify. One lady had not been able to walk for six years and came on stage partially healed. Daniel Garcia prayed for her, and she received her full healing right there on the platform in front of everyone's eyes!

Jangwani

Evangelists Jim and Kathy Leamon and Evangelist Jacob Ebersole were stationed in the district of Jangwani, where Evangelist Daniel Kolenda joined them to preach on the third night.

One man had been in a car accident 10 years ago, leaving him with a spinal cord injury. He could barely walk or stand, even with crutches. During prayer, he felt the power of God on him and then strength poured into his legs. He stood up from his chair and began to walk without any help and without his crutches. The grounds we chose for this campaign used to be a trash dump for the local people. As we stood on that field that was once a garbage heap, joy filled our hearts. These beautiful people, whose lives had been full of the world's trash were now renewed and made clean in God's sight, standing on grounds also redeemed in their own neighborhood. What a moving and prophetic picture.

Kigamboni

To preach at all six campaigns in five days, Daniel Kolenda had to preach at two events on the fourth night—another first for CfaN. The first of these was Kigamboni, where Evangelists Joe Turnbull and Randy Roberts were ministering. Evangelist Roberts shared this story.

I interviewed a precious older woman who had suffered from rheumatoid arthritis for years, unable to do the simplest of tasks or even walk properly. We wept together as we thanked King Jesus for what He had done. No more shuffling to the market, no more unfulfilled desires to pick up her grandchildren. One more individual among thousands changed by the preaching of the pure Gospel. All because you sent us, we preached the Gospel, she believed it and "called on the name of the Lord."

Mbagala

Mbagala was the second campaign Evangelist Daniel Kolenda preached at that night. On the ground for the whole event were Evangelists Rob Enge and Roselyne Ayeola. Rob Enge is Daniel Kolenda's Executive Assistant, and he's an evangelist. This was the first time he preached at a CfaN Crusade.

Before arriving, I received updates from our Campaign Director of the challenges they faced. Churches had never been able to host big gatherings due to the dominant religion there. Permits were never granted, and access to locations was always denied. But we pressed onward in faith! Our permits were approved, and the venue was released. At the field dedication, where local churches pray for the campaign before it starts, a witch came to see what was happening. As the power of God was moving, she fell to her knees. One of the pastors prayed for her, and she accepted Jesus as her Savior! She immediately turned over all the witchcraft items she had brought.

Kawe

Evangelists Levi Lutz and Macoby Donaldson each preached two nights in Kawe. For Macoby Donaldson, it was the first time he had ever preached at a Crusade.

On the first night, I walked up to pray for the sick after Levi Lutz finished preaching, and I gave it everything I had. I did exactly as I learned in Evangelism Bootcamp, and it worked! So many people were healed. A woman was brought onstage on a stretcher, unable to walk at all. As I watched them bring her, I did have feelings of worry. But what came after that was belief and faith that God is so good, and the Word of God is true. We prayed for her right there in front of tens of thousands of people. She smiled as she took our hands, took her first steps in several years, and walked off that platform on her own two feet!

weak-willed cowards, hiding out to save their own skin. But then something happened—something radically changed them. Something transformed them into bold witnesses, proclaiming the gospel wherever they went. (Read the Book of Acts if you want to see what I'm talking about.) What changed them was seeing the resurrected Christ (and being filled with the Holy Spirit). And they didn't just see Him—they talked with Him, walked with Him, touched Him, and even ate with Him for weeks after He rose from the dead!
If Christ didn't rise from the dead, then all fact, if your pastor preached about the resurrection in August, you might wonder if he was confused. But the resurrection is not just an Easter message. It lies at the heart of Christianity, even in one sense eclipsing the significance of the cross. For without the resurrection the crucifixion was just an execution. Lots of people have died on lots of crosses, but there is only One who rose from the dead, ascended to heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
Without the resurrection the crucifixion was just an execution.

WHAT'S NEXT?

Follow-up literature for kids

TANYA GARDINER

Over 60% of the entire population of Africa is under the age of 25, and more than half of those are under the age of 16! When we say, "Africa shall be saved," we must be intentional and committed to reaching the children and youth of Africa.

CfaN has a very strong follow-up system, working with local churches. Each new convert receives a booklet, "Now That You Are Saved,"

So far in 2021...
Over 500,000 decisions for Jesus in children's campaigns

which helps them understand their decision and take their first steps in discipleship. It's a crucial, well-tested system that gives new believers the best possible start to their new lives in Christ and filters them immediately into a local church.

And now we have a new tool in that follow-up box! In the last two years, our Bootcamp and CfaN team members have conducted an astonishing number of Kid's Crusades. We realized quickly that we needed a special booklet just for kids...the same, powerful Gospel message, but in language that young children can understand.

A personal love letter from Jesus

Daniel Kolenda wrote our new kids' follow-up booklet, "What's Next?" Formulated as a coloring book–an interactive, personal experience for each child–it doesn't hold back on the crystal-clear salvation message. It's a personal love letter from Jesus, and a gift that means the world to these children. Many of them have never personally owned their own book before. How special and loved they feel when they receive something for them personally... This is a treasure they share with other children and take home to their families.

It works!

While our CfaN Bootcamp teams were out in the field in 2021, we ran our first "What's Next?" pilot project, printing half a million copies in Tanzania, in Swahili, to give to every single child who made a decision for Jesus. As the evangelists went from town to town, preaching as many as 9 times in a single day, they were handing out these beautiful booklets to every child who said, "Yes!" to Jesus.

Since then, we have printed another 1.5 million booklets, which are now available in 10 languages. And more languages are being added every month. It costs as little as 15 cents per booklet–and that includes the printing, storage, and most importantly, the cost of sending evangelists to preach to children.

NATIONS CHURCH has launched!

Orlando, Florida

Nations Church launched on August 15, 2021 as the local expression of Christ for all Nations' global ministry. CfaN Lead Evangelist and Nations Church Lead Pastor Daniel Kolenda led the capacity crowd of nearly 2,500 attendees through an incredibly lively service. The celebration featured dynamic worship with Worship Director and Associate Pastor Eddie James, Worship Pastor Jenny Weaver and others.

But the highlight of the morning was Pastor Kolenda's sermon, which shone simultaneously as an impassioned reminder of the fledgling church's deep roots in an abiding commitment to evangelism and a vivid presentation of the leadership's vision to move forward as a house of authentic worship, biblical theology, and relational discipleship.

Pastor Kolenda noted that a few online critics had bemoaned his decision to start a church for fear that CfaN would lose its evangelistic focus. His response was, "We're not leaving the nations—in fact, we're increasing from 7 Gospel Crusades per year to 43!" As he explained, "This church is on our hearts because we can't see what God is doing in other cities around the world and watch our own city go to hell. We're not interested in people who are already in a local church. We want to win the people who don't know Jesus and provide them with a place where they can grow."

Over 1,000 salvations—before Nations Church opened!

True to that vision, Nations Church's Evangelism Director, Scott McNamara, shared from the stage that his team, a mix of volunteer congregants and CfaN's Evangelism Bootcamp students, has already seen well over a thousand salvations resulting from their active outreach on the streets of Orlando. In fact, a whole section of the auditorium in their weekly pre-launch "Worship and Intercession Services" was filled with new converts, saved in the city and now part of the church.

Jesus at the Door program, an incredibly effective tool for one-on-one evangelism

REVIVAL in the streets

Scott McNamara is the Evangelism Director at Nations Church and the originator of the Jesus at the Door program, an incredibly effective tool for one-on-one evangelism.

Before Nations Church had even launched, they saw over 1,000 people saved through street and door-to-door outreaches. And with every week that goes by, new believers are joining in droves, converts are being baptized, and entire families are experiencing God's transforming power in their lives.

"What we've done with Jesus at the Door, which we've pioneered since 2014, is to plant it in the ministry soil of CfaN and Nations Church. I think it's a beautiful synergy—crusade evangelism on the one hand, and one-on-one ministry on the other. I know Daniel Kolenda's heart is for those who go to Africa to also train churches and individuals to reach others, and Jesus at the Door is a very effective way of doing this.

Right here in Orlando, we are seeing results that just blow my mind. That's what happens when we don't leave evangelism to a tiny percentage of Christians, but rather all get involved in carrying out the Great Commission. As one man said to me recently, a police officer who had just learned how to use Jesus at the Door, 'I've shared the Gospel with more people in the last hour than I have in 18 years of being saved!' And that's what we want to see—people in all walks of life sharing Jesus in their own spheres of influence.

There are so many beautiful testimonies, and they're happening literally every day. We have a New Believers group, where people who've just met Christ find a family, a community that's there for them, not only on Sundays but throughout the week. We're seeing church growth, not from transferring people from other churches, but by people getting saved. And that's how it should be!"
